- B-C-ing-U ! - Bathed in the sea, filled with sunshine, overlooked by the Pyrenees Orientales, the French Catalan Country undoubtedly surprises the visitor - Meanderings through France n° 122

« Pyrénées Orientales' inhabitants make me jealous. This French department set at the foot of the Pyrenees on the western most part of the French Mediterranean coast is a land of plenty. On this small territory they enjoy skiing in winter, water sports all year round, beautiful and varied landscapes and great food. It comes as no surprise that famous artists such as Picasso, Signac, Matisse, Dali, Maillol... found there an endless source of inspiration..."
